Winners of Healthcare Innovation™ Awards Announced at Gartner Healthcare Summit.

Bedford, N.H., November 16, 2007 -- Vision Events, a Gartner Company, Inc. (NYSE: IT), announced the winners of the Healthcare IT Innovation Awards at the 9th Annual Gartner Healthcare Summit. Five leading high tech and telecommunications companies in five categories were chosen and honored during the Summit, which was held in Miami, Florida at The Doral Golf Resort & Spa from November 11-14, 2007.

"Healthcare is the fastest growing vertical through 2008, with growth for 2007 projected to be 7%" said Charles Badoian, Vice President Program Management for the Healthcare Summit. "And the senior IT Executives who attend the Summit are really enthusiastic about seeing the best healthcare technology providers. They also recognize that high tech and telecommunications companies' innovation and excellence contributes to their success, so they're always eager to cast their votes for our Healthcare IT Summit Technology Awards."

The gathering of pre-qualified senior IT executives from insurer and provider organizations who attended the Healthcare Summit completed confidential ballots to select technology providers for the Awards after previewing and learning about new technologies and products in private case study appointments and in the Healthcare Center™. During the November 13th ceremony, corporate sponsors and high tech and telecommunications companies were recognized for these achievements:

Most Innovative Presentation

Winner: Gateway

Best Demonstration of Value/ROI

Winner: Covisint

Solution with the Greatest Market Potential

Winner: ikaSystems

Best Case Study Presentation

Winner: Microsoft

Best New Technology

Winner: HealthEdge

About the Gartner Healthcare Summit

Now in its ninth year, The Healthcare Summit brings Senior IT Executives from insurer and provider organizations together with Gartner Analysts, and leading and emerging high tech and telecommunications companies. The focus — leveraging information and technology to optimize value — embraces healthcare-specific issues, trends and solutions. The business-intensive format includes Gartner-led sessions, high tech and telecommunication company-led case study appointments, a showcase of exhibits, and networking functions.
