Winners of IT Executives' Choice Awards
Announced at Gartner Healthcare Summit

Bedford, N.H., -- Vision Events, a Gartner, Inc. (NYSE: IT) company, announced the winners of the IT Executives' Choice Awards from the 7th Annual Gartner Healthcare Summit. Four leading technology providers were chosen and honored during the Summit, which was held in Orlando, Florida in November.

"The healthcare industry has become the next big global target for IT transformation," said Charles Badoian, event director for Gartner Healthcare Summit, "So naturally, the IT Executives' Choice Awards are highly valued by Summit participants."

The gathering of over 200 pre-qualified senior IT and business healthcare executives who attended the Gartner Healthcare Summit completed confidential ballots to select technology providers for the Awards after previewing and learning about new technologies and products in private case study presentations.

During the ceremony, corporate sponsors and vendors were recognized for these achievements:

Best Case Study Presentation

Perot Systems: "Daughters of Charity Case Study: Charting Information Technology Success through Effective Strategic Planning"

Best New Technology

IBM Corporation: IBM Clinical Decision Intelligence (CDI)

Most Innovative Presentation

IBM Corporation: "Advanced Clinical Decision Intelligence for Cancer Patients"

Best Demonstration of Value/ROI

Accenture: "Top Issues Facing the Managed Healthcare Industry in 2006"

Solution with the Greatest Market Potential

MobileAccess Networks: MobileAccess Universal Wireless Network

Gartner Healthcare Summit 2006 will take place November 12-15 at the Hotel del Coronado, in San Diego, California.
